

[10:53] Don M: not narrating to each entry ... bias key as always, but trying to explain my scale and bias approach fwiw with occasional examples
 [10:54] Don M: I'll be quiet now ... just feeling it today

[10:56] Don M: those initial scales so key in this chop in case you don't get the extension

[10:56] Jellie1: "talk" all you want ..... the bias/examples are welcome

[11:12] Don M: fade 'em if you got 'em

[11:12] Don M: tis the season
 [11:19] Don M: soh

[11:20] Jellie1: y - same - no pace in here and choppy

[11:29] Don M: watching tick trend

[11:29] Don M: to see if it begins trending higher later

[11:29] Don M: double doji on 60 min

[11:33] Don M: no noon fade today?

[11:33] Don M: still got time
 [11:34] Jellie1: y - plenty of time for it to setup

[11:34] Don M: yea
 [11:34] Don M: patience Don

[11:37] Don M: don't often see two wide range 60-min dogis side by side ... not exactly a huge range of course ... but reflects the low adx chop

[11:37] Don M: dojis ... duh
 [11:39] Jellie1: dogis, kitties, dojis ...lol

[11:39] Don M: that 5 min will have to break eventually

[11:39] Don M: but 1st earnings out tonight with AA

[11:40] Jellie1: yep and INTC and JPM later in the week

[09:05] Jellie1: Good morning all
 [09:05] Jellie1: MATN - oscillations have been playing out pre-market. If we open in this area will be watching for potential opening Tick play long. Will also look to TUB 59-61 area (ONL, VAL) long on first approach with confirming divergences. And will consider a TUB of the 68-69 area (Friday resistance, HVN, VAH) short on first approach with confirming divergences.

[09:07] Don M: will trust current "tail" rhythm with long bias meaning bids often below markets on downturns for best wholesale entries

[09:07] Don M: exiting into slow grinds back up
 [09:07] Don M: we'll be testing daily MA for the first time in ages
 [09:07] Don M: in the area anyway

[09:08] Don M: TMAR until VIX begins steady descent
 [09:11] Don M: no news that I can see today
 [09:11] Jellie1: correct

 [09:12] Jellie1: :-)
 [09:17] Don M: green tint
 [09:18] Jellie3: Green tinge here also - but not too aggressive as market not terribly oversold here
 [09:19] Jellie1: POLR definitely to the green side
 [09:19] Jellie4: green with a yellow tint at edges (58 & 74)
 [09:23] Jellie2: the dax looks like a sym tri on the 5 min.....will wait for a direction

[09:31] Don M: L on early dips
 [09:32] Don M: don't understand Jellie3's comment but can discuss later
 [09:32] Don M: huge supports low 60s
 [09:32] Don M: later
 [09:33] Don M: VIX air ... will keep eye on it
 [09:34] Jellie2: dax broke thru to the downside
 [09:34] Don M: europe irrelevant on us open

 [09:37] Don M: 60 solid globex
 [09:38] Don M: 60 inverse rt shoulder on 60 min
 [09:38] Jellie3: should be buyers and sellers at opening 5 min bar high/low....
 [09:38] Don M: scaing
 [09:39] Don M: tick +
 [09:39] Jellie3: if I was long, i'd love to sell on that 1st 5m bar penetration
 [09:39] Don M: vix needs to pause for more than TMAR
 [09:39] Jellie3: ticks not looking healthy though [09:40] Jellie1: Internals neutral to negative
 [09:40] Jellie3: S1 at 58.75....
 [09:40] Jellie3: 3lb still red on my display....

 [09:45] Don M: everything lined up
 [09:45] Jellie1: nice
 [09:46] Don M: about the easiest open we'll see

[09:50] Don M: 60-64 globex range respecting to start [09:50] Don M: nice elbow rm though
 [09:51] Don M: soh after open seq
 [09:52] Don M: marking vix range
 [09:53] Don M: still low ADXs on 15-60 [09:53] Don M: so TMAR but ranges decent for 2-3 pts

 [09:55] Don M: ticks ambivalent to neg to start [09:55] Don M: PPT at 0 it seems
 [09:55] Don M: 60
 [09:57] Don M: nice pace
 [09:57] Jellie2: looking for a TD below 58 to go L
 [10:11] Don M: tail rhythms still very much alive
 [10:16] Don M: nw
 [10:16] Don M: nice read on 58ish td Jellie2
 [10:16] Don M: man's in rhythm

 [10:17] Don M: not shocking
 [10:17] Don M: 5 will have to transition to extend daily more than TMAR
 [10:19] Don M: 5 channel for now
 [10:19] Jellie2: each rally has failed so far [10:19] Don M: 15 curling dn a bit ... may get daily - 15 ping pong
 [10:25] Don M: buyers on every tail dip
 [10:26] Jellie1: y
 [10:26] Jellie1: POLR is still up
 [10:26] Don M: y
 [10:28] Don M: these shorts trying to short breakdowns getting crushed each time [10:28] Don M: 1 min tris should be good [10:28] Don M: in this pace

 [10:30] Jellie1: 6.25 point IB
 [10:30] Don M: should break to upside
 [10:30] Don M: POLR up
 [10:30] Don M: for sure
 [10:31] Don M: at least probe
 [10:32] Don M: vix confirming [10:37] Don M: probed, nw
 [10:37] Don M: still gotta respect low adx wide range stuff
 [10:37] Don M: in the bias of POLR
 [10:37] Don M: 60 min & 15
 [10:43] Don M: L250
 [10:43] Don M: 3-5 tic tgts in this mkt [10:45] Don M: taking 2-3 tic partials on these and letting rest ride or scr ... so assume such [10:46] Don M: 5 doing that transition thing
 [10:50] Don M: like that "2-3 tic and let mkt decide on rest" strategy today
 [10:50] Don M: not yet in grind mode but could get there [10:53] Don M: flattened

[11:43] Don M: biased green above 6150

[11:43] Don M: polr

[11:43] Don M: tri break attempt

[11:43] Jellie1: that 57-58 area is over the past couple of weeks

[11:44] Don M: git up

[11:44] Don M: grind baby

[11:45] Don M: IIAGD

[11:45] Don M: with POLR

[11:51] Don M: sensing stuck shorts

[11:51] Don M: but how many??

[11:52] Jellie3: looking cuppy - but I would think most got flushed at 10:30ish.....

[11:52] Don M: still taking 2-3 initially

[11:52] Don M: i.e. got small still from 225

[11:53] Don M: looking for 375+ on rest

[11:53] Don M: or scr

[11:53] Don M: no risk

[11:53] Jellie3: seems like a good bet - vix still dropping, tick holding above 0

[11:54] Don M: just sensing shorts are tired of trying to push this down ... and IIAGD .....

[11:54] Don M: also saw buyers come in at 275

[11:54] Don M: yea

[11:54] Don M: there we go

[11:56] Don M: still offering above
64

[11:57] Don M: normally fade the midday push, but trading it instead ... lol

3rd mini push

[11:57] Don M: waiting for another thrust

[11:58] Don M: bailing on the
