

Trading After Dark Community Overview

Mission:

Provide a highly unique supportive team forum for global traders emphasizing inter-continental sessions and transition opportunities, daily market assessments, peak performance attainment, and advanced charting and algo tools.

Objectives:

- Facilitate a small team environment of like-minded aggressive traders
- Strengthen & encourage each other (Iron sharpens Iron)
- Hold each other accountable and to the highest standard
- Review preceding U.S. RTH session
- Brainstorm & plan potential Asia – Europe – Next Day U.S. transition opportunities
- Primarily focus on U.S. & Europe equity indices (Initially)
- Provide group text, audio, video, and smartphone conferencing capability
- Provide a network for pursuit/communication of best practices & optimal trader tools including access to enhanced charting and executable algos supported by programmers who trade
- Keep participation fees affordable to respect trader overhead budgets & maximize trader profitability including discounts/waivers for past effort participation
- Please note this is not a typical “chatroom” ... rather a networking mechanism in the spirit of a virtual trading prop shop for a select group of serious and aggressive traders.
